PROTECTION SHOULD BE GIVEN

Several days ago a mad dog running wild in the lower part of the town was shot by Policeman Yassney. On investigation Mr. Yassney found that the dog had bitten several other dogs, among them being one belonging to Mr. H. M. Thomas. On Friday Mr. Thomas was bitten by his dog, which he immediately had shot. The head was sent to Columbia where it was found that the dog had a well-defined case of rabies and Mr. Thomas is now taking the treatment.

As far as we can learn there has been no steps taken to protect the people from the danger of the other dogs that were bitten by the animal that ran amuck. We understand that there is an ordinance stating what action should be taken in a case like this, but so far nothing has been done.

We believe that our town officials are making a grave mistake in not taking the proper steps to protect our citizens against this dreaded disease.

OUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

We have been repeatedly asked what has become of our Chamber of Commerce. We find, after an incomplete investigation, that it is a lack of initiative on the part of the business men of this place. Every one seems in favor of trying to revive this defunct organization, and we, with the rest, believe that a great amount of good would result if we could get it to functioning again. There is plenty of opportunities to be taken advantage of, such as taking steps to improve our tobacco market, forming marketing associations to help the sale of our produce, trying to interest capital in the establishment of a cannery, a tobacco stemmiery, and various other little industries which are in line with an agricultural country.

We believe that with the proper effort that the Chamber of Commerce can be revived and get into first-class working shape in a short time. Let us get together and try and do something, instead of getting rustier as each year passes.

Not all men squander their hard earned money. They don't earn it.

It isn't always the cost of a thing that bothers us. It is the price we have to pay.

Some people wipe out their old debts by converting them into newer and larger ones.

We note, however, that there has been no reduction in the price of postage stamps and marriage licenses.

Dear old congress is just itching to perpetrate another national joke. It wants to investigate war contracts.

Sooner or later we will have to put a check on immigration, or the advancing horde will be pushing us into the Pacific.

It is fortunate that great minds do not all run in the same channel. Scrambled brains might become tiresome as a steady diet.

The number of prize fighters that are springing up lead one to suspect that there is little likelihood of another war in the near future.

A new continent is said to have been discovered in the anaretic regions in which no booze has ever been made or sold. It is uninhabited.

We sincerely hope the Stillman scandal will soon blow over or peter out. We want a good night's sleep without harrowing dreams of what might occur.

A CHARMING HOME WEDDING

A pretty wedding ceremony of last night was that of Miss Bertha Cecil London, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. London of Bartlett Street, and Wendell Mitchell Levi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell

Levi of Sumter, S. C., which took place at 6 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, Dr. Samuel Goldenson read the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Canton crepe, embroidered in pearls, with a full court train of satin and crepe, trimmed with Venice lace. Her veil of tulle fell from a Russian cap of Venice lace, and was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Adele London, as maid of honor, wore a gown of coral chiffon, and carried an arm bouquet of Dresden flowers. The bridesmaid, Miss Netta Levi, wore a gown of robin's egg blue, embroidered in peach beads, and carried Ophelia roses. Edward D'Ancona acted as best man, and the ushers were Ernest Rosenberg and Harold D'Ancona. The ceremony took place before an embankment of vibodium ferns, palms and crotons, beneath a canopy of Dorothy Perkins roses.

A reception and dinner followed the ceremony. With covers for twenty-five at the bridal table, which was centered with Ophelia roses, delphinium, phlox, and Dorothy Perkins roses. The house was decorated with asparagus ferns and cut flowers. The bride's mother, who was gowned in green georgette, embroidered in silver over orchid, with corsage of orchids, and the bridegroom's mother, who wore a gown of black chantilly lace with corsage of orchids, received with the bridal party. The aids at the reception were Miss Leona Diamond, Claire Hertz, Myra Kann, Laura Adolph, Marjorie Klein and Selma Hollander. They carried old-fashioned bouquets.

After a southern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Levi will be at home in Sumter. From Pittsburg, Pa., Dispatch, June 21st.
